

SHA Wellness Clinic Wins the 'Best Medical, Thermal & Natural Spa' at the 2010 Condé Nast Traveller Readers' Spa Awards

February 2010, London – The seventh annual Condé Nast Traveller Readers' Spa Awards took place at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel in London on Monday 2 February 2010. From a selection of the World's best medical spas, SHA Wellness Clinic was awarded the number one spot in the category Medical, Thermal & Natural spas, achieving an overall score of 95.41 out of a possible 100.

“Nowhere impresses you more than Spain's fabulous SHA Wellness Clinic,” states Condé Nast Traveller readers, who rated SHA's treatments, cuisine and also accommodation. The Readers' Survey also ranked SHA as number 7 in the World's Top 25 Spas.

Located in the picturesque town of El Albir in Southern Spain, SHA Wellness Clinic offers weight loss treatments, non-smoking therapies and the latest treatments in aesthetic medicine. SHA offers a platform for guests to find a harmonious balance through mind, body and spirit by blending ancient oriental techniques with advanced western medicine. The property's sleek design and approach to wellbeing has drawn an international following, including celebrities such as Kylie Minogue, Naomi Campbell and Spanish actress, Elsa Petaky.

Within only 18 months of opening, SHA has already received numerous accolades including Favourite Spa in Spain in SpaFinder's Readers' Choice 2009 Awards and The Best Gastronomy Trend of 2009 by culinary institution, Club Millesime.
